

Vanderbilt Program in Molecular Medicine

Seminar Series
2015 Fall

*Unless noted, all seminars will be held in 350 Light Hall at 5:00 p.m.
Dinner will be provided to all trainees and mentors in attendance.*

- September 2 Orientation for new program participants: Patient Interactions
David Raiford, MD
Associate Vice Chancellor for Health Affairs, Senior Associate Dean for Faculty Affairs, Chief of Staff for Vanderbilt Health Systems
- September 9 Program Orientation for new program participants: Course Requirements
Mark de Caestecker, MB BS, PhD
Associate Professor of Nephrology
- September 16 Mentor Reception
All mentors and trainees invited
- September 30 Get to know your fellow classmates (all trainees)
Roger Chalkley, DPhil
Senior Associate Dean for Biomedical Research Education and Training
- October 14 Polarity, stem cells, and breast cancer
Ian Macara, PhD
Professor and Chair of Cell and Developmental Biology, Louise B. McGavock Professor
- October 28* Bench to Bedside: Metastatic Melanoma
Doug Johnson, MD, MSCI
Assistant Professor of Medicine, Division of Hematology and Oncology
5:15 p.m. in 1220 MRBIII*
- November 11 Can we really target glucose to treat asthma?
Jeff Rathmell, PhD
Professor of Pathology, Microbiology, and Immunology
- December 2 Discovery of Dabrafenib: A treatment for mutation-positive advanced melanomas
Alex Waterson, PhD
Research Assistant Professor of Pharmacology
- December 16 TBA
Lisa Lancaster, MD
Assistant Professor of Medicine, Clinical Director Interstitial Lung Disease Program, Associate Director of Adult Cystic Fibrosis Program